

Story Dogs Library Sessions

Our library is very excited to have Story Dogs visiting. Please help us, by following these six golden rules to keep everyone safe and happy.

Six Golden Rules

Fun Reading 🐾 Reading for Life

Story Dog reading sessions are conducted between the Story Dog team (the volunteer and their dog), and your child. No other siblings or relatives please.

Children attending Story Dogs must be of school age.

Parents/guardians, and other children are asked to give the Story Dog Team adequate space and to not interrupt reading sessions.

Adults and children are asked to moderate their behaviour around Story Dogs. Story Dogs are to be treated respectfully, and not crowded.

If you or other children would like to interact with the Story Dog please ask the volunteer at the end of a session if a gentle pat is appropriate.

Please follow all requests and directions from library staff and the Story Dog volunteer.

Thanks for helping everyone enjoy their library experience!

Happy Reading, woof woof!
